Neighboring News.

HANGING FORK BRIDGE.—Matt Engleman sold to R. Cobb, Jr., 6 young mares for $950. Mr. Engleman brought 75 from Montana recently and has them at George Engleman's. —Chicken thieves are still making successful raids. They left the heads of an even 100 fowls lying around the hen-houses of Mr. Coyner, living on the Eb Owsley place, near Jim Guest's, while Mrs. James Gastineau, Mrs. George R. Waters and quite a number of others have been heavy losers of the feathered tribe recently. —Miss Lucy Myers bought of Frank Winfrey a fancy buggy mare for $155. —The beauty of the fields of waving grain is now being figured by the reapers. Farmers say that the harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few. —Mrs. Ann Gastineau has been milking a heifer for a year or more that never found nor heard tell of a calf till recently. —Linn Dawson sold to R. B. & E. P. Woods a mare mule colt for $100 and a horse mule colt for $55. Blacksmith G. T. Kelly also sold a mare mule colt for $100. —Mrs. Lucinda Myers has been suffering considerably from the effects of the bite of a rat. She found it in a flour barrel and was trying to keep the thing confined till her son came to kill it, when it resorted to its only means of defense by biting, with the above result. Mrs. Myers is the same good old lady that fell and broke her leg about a year ago, and from which she never experienced any material pain, strange to say. —The boy genius, Archie Cook, some of whose work was recently mentioned in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, has been at it again. This time he performed the almost miraculous thing of carving the head of a man out of a big piece of clay, which was so life-like when completed that some of the neighbors have been speaking of it, mistaking it for a gentleman residing in the county. He has it dressed exactly like a man and even the perfection of the complexion is marvelous to behold. Archie is bound to win a name and fame some way. —It is an every day business in this vicinity —the discussion of "Rats." I heard one old lady say they had caught about 150 of her young chickens, while everybody has suffered more or less from the pestiferous things. I am told that they have eaten all of the young chickens of Mr. Irvine, who lives on Mrs. King's place, are running all of the setting hens off of their regular places of business, and leave nothing in the nests but shells to remind Mr. Irvine of what might have been. Everybody is putting out poison in the shape of arsenic, &c., but the rats seem to grow more healthy under this treatment and when they set a trap for them the rats carry them off. "Rats!"

A Complaint and a Petition.

HOLDMAN'S MILL, SCHOOL DISTRICT 49.—I would write a letter in regard to our school. We have had our school election and elected trustees that put the same teacher in that we had last year. It is Mary Patton and I don't think she is qualified to teach the school, for she taught an indifferent school last year. In the first place she whipped a little girl unmercifully and had to pay a fine of $12. She promised Miss Kate Bogle to move the children to a warmer room and she took them first one place and then another. She moved the school in a house where they had a stable. The horses and the hogs were in one side of the house and the children in the other. Is it possible that our children will have to be treated in such a way? We are not heathens, if we do live in the country. I believe that Miss Kate Bogle will see that we have a teacher that will teach a better school than we had last year. It is said she only had third-class certificate, and we think the cause of our having such a teacher was on account of whisky on the day of the election. The majority were drunk and they did not care for the welfare of our school. This is true. Mr. George Patton is one of the trustees. He is her husband and it is his interest for Mrs. Patton to have the school, but he doesn't care for the good of the rising generation. So as Miss Kate Bogle is a candidate we trust she will have a better teacher than Mrs. Patton and our school will prove a benefit to our community and not a disgrace.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

MR. EDITOR:—I bought one of Griffith's machines for plating with gold, silver or nickel, and it works to perfection. No sooner did people hear of it than I had more spoons, knives, forks and jewelry than I could place in a month. The first week I cleared $31.30, the first month $400.50, and I think by July 1st I will have $1,000 cash and give my farm considerable attention too. My daughter made $7.40 in four days. Any person can get one of these machines by sending $3 to W. H. Griffith & Co., Zanesville, O., or can obtain circulars by addressing them. You can learn to use the machine in one hour. As this is my first lucky streak, I give my experience, hoping others may be benefited as much as I have been.

DRUNKENNESS—THE LIQUOR HAB

T-In All the World there is but one cure, Dr. Haines' Golden Specific. It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, effecting a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been cured who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they but drinking of their own free will. No harmful effects result from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 135 Race Street, Cincinnati, O.

Points of Interest in and Around Hot Springs.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., June 20, '90. I was both surprised and sorry to find that on the police force there are as many colored as white men and why things are thus nobody seems to know. Some say that experience has taught that with both colors on guard better order is preserved, while others say it is "cursed meanness" on the part of some of the councilmen, who try to spite a few as well as to secure the colored vote. It doesn't speak well for the place and there are those who swear by "all that is holy" that when there is another board to be elected things will be changed. God grant they will.

There are a large number of cow boys here, but from what I have seen of them they are as a general thing a quiet, clever lot. Of course they are a little uncouth in manners, but their big-heartedness atones for such breaches of etiquette, and such a thing is easily overlooked. At my hotel, there are several, but one named Wilson, who by his friends has been dubbed "Tag," is deserving of mention. "Tag" is 6 feet 5 inches and a model of politeness and kindness. He devotes almost his entire attention to the welfare of the weakly ladies and literally wears himself out waiting on them. He takes his departure in a few days and it will be with regret from the bell boy to the landlord, and from the sickly girl to the rheumatic lady that he is given up.

It is remarkable that this boiling hot water, found nowhere else in this continent, is in such close proximity to such delightful ice-cold springs. In the same mountain on either side there gushes forth a never-failing stream of water, splendid in taste and medicinal in property, and still on another side there is the world-renowned Mountain Valley Spring. From the same mountain 8 different kinds of water flow, but none better known than the wonderful Hot Springs water. There is water to suit every taste, but should there be a person so fastidious that none of the 8 would please, it seems that about all there is to do would be to ask for what you want.

Those who have experienced it say that the good effects of a "boiling out" at this place is not felt until one has thoroughly regained the strength lost by the severe treatment. For instance there are people who have bathed for months who are so weak and seemingly worn out from the effects that it is all their doctors can do to persuade them to go home and rest up. Of course only those doctors who are doctors in the true sense of the word ever suggest such a thing as leaving, for the majority of them think too much of filthy lucre to want their patients to go away, or rather have their pay stopped, so keep them as long as possible.

By the way about the most important thing to keep your eye on here is your doctor, and even then your chances of getting fleeced are about 9 out of 10. Far be it from my intention, however, to speak detrimentally of that class as a whole, but there are a lot of quacks here who should by all means be exposed. They have runners or steers, as they are called, and like the drummers for the hotels they use their might and main to rope you in. They flourish like the green bay tree, though, and get a good share of the patronage by their cunning ways, but many a Hot Springs visitor has felt like kicking himself till his kickers are kicked out and his "kick" is paralyzed for going headlong to them, when by asking some reputable citizen he could have saved both health and money.

Hell's Half-Acre, about 3½ miles from here, is the most horrible looking place I have ever seen. It is a perfect field of immense boulders and lying between is a ghastly chasm. It gives one the horrors to walk on the precipices, where, should a foot slip, you would be thrown to eternity, and it was with a scream of delight that our party bade farewell to the place so appropriately christened.

I have visited a number of places since I have been here, including Happy Hollow, Gillen's White Sulphur Springs and Dripping Springs. The former is merely a spring about a mile from town, where a mighty pretty girl sells water at a penny a glass; the second is quite a pleasant summer resort, under the shadow of a high mountain, with a big spring of sulphur water, nearly as strong as the famous White Sulphur Springs water in Old Virginia, while Dripping Springs does not begin to compare with Dan Slaughter's resort of the same name. There are a number of such resorts not far from town and it is quite a treat to leave "home," as it were, and spend a forenoon or an afternoon seeing the sights they afford.

Unfortunately for myself I struck at my hotel an unwholesome large number of agnostics and spiritualists and some heated discussions are engaged in. That portion of us who have proper regard for our Maker and some respect for ourselves object very seriously to the controversies with which that class speak of religion and the religious and we frequently turn a deaf ear to their criticisms as well as elude discussing on the subject. There is a brave little Southern lady here, who don't bluff worth a cent, and it looks frequently like feathers are going to fly before the thing is through with. There are lots of agnostics at the Springs and it looks not unlike a fact that the Lord has punished them because of the error of their way.

There are hundreds of devices here for making money and the peddler has a veritable picnic. Shooting galleries, springs where you can drink all day for 5 cents, Hot Springs diamonds and curiosities of every conceivable kind are offered by them with such a half-starved, beseeching look that even the hard-hearted and close-fisted cannot resist spending a bit or two with them.

The sport is in his glory here and there are many ways he can get rid of his time and "stuff," but those who do not belong to his class, as I have said before, find it pretty dull. Bookmakers on the various races, but principally on Sheephead Bay, at present, are doing a land-office business, while those who put up money have the bag to hold. Then too there are so-called club rooms where can be found "craps," poker and games of all kinds where a man can be accommodated in any amount or at any time. The outside of Hot Springs presents a dull appearance, but the interior is gay indeed in this line.

There is not much for the democrats to be thankful under the present administration, but it is justice to give the devil his dues and it would not be out of place to speak a kind word or two of P. M. General Wamamaker and the president in their selection of postmasters. Hot Springs, like numerous Kentucky towns, has a postmaster that belongs to the fair sex and is as efficient in her business as she is comely in appearance. She is Miss Flora Hawes and is an extremely handsome young lady of some 20-odd summers and attends to the onerous duties of the postoffice with the alacrity of a man with a score of years' business experience. Tom Newman, well-known in Lincoln, and who for years was head clerk at Crab Orchard Springs, is her first deputy, which is an assurance within itself that the mail is handled judiciously and carefully.

To add to the already large number of hotels here, another with 500 rooms is nearing completion. It will be known as The Park Hotel and will be a beauty indeed. The situation is a lovely one and besides having the many modern appliances, the guests will have access to the 10 acre park in which the hotel is located. A dancing pavilion, said to be sufficiently large for 200 couples to trip the light fantastic is already built and this fall an orchestra of 50 pieces will furnish the music there as well as concerts during each meal for the Park Hotel guests. It is authentically stated that some 50 or more Royal families from "across the deep blue sea" have already contracted with that hostelry and The Eastman to spend next winter.

The climate is hot just now, but in winter is said to be delightful. The thermometer hardly ever goes below freezing and only one slight snow occurred last season. Jay Gould and some of the Vanderbilts spend a portion of nearly every winter here, and frequently the miles of side track around the depot is blockaded with the private cars, belonging to the big bugs who come here from all parts of the world.

I had no idea what a rough, mountainous State Arkansas was until I came here and it puzzles me to know how the various towns are supported. Hot Springs, of course, is kept up by those who seek health, but Malvern and the other towns of its size in this section mystify me. The land except in the few valleys is exceedingly rugged with no soil at all and it is remarkable when and how the towns get their growth. It is true that a class of the people make a little money hunting curiosities and digging for the glistening Hot Springs diamond, but this vocation cannot and doesn't support a tenth of the inhabitants, even of this immediate section. It is said that one-half of the world knows not how the other half lives and I am more than ever convinced of the truthfulness of the statement.

The Hot Springs diamond is quite a popular ornament and at a hop given by the Arlington Hotel Friday evening the sight of them was literally blinding, so numerous and brilliant were they. In fact it reminded me very much of a Kentucky hop, which I did not attend, but merely read the newspaper account of. It was a grand affair, though, and was enjoyed till a late hour. There was considerably more chivalry than beauty, but then beauty is not everything and its scarcity was easily overlooked.

I know of nothing further that would even partly interest the I. J. readers and with this communication my correspondence from hereabout may be said to end. My stay in Hot Springs has been as pleasant as I could wish and during the time it has been my good fortune to meet some extremely clever people, who have treated me both courteously and kindly, and who have done much for my delectation. To them I am very thankful, and to those who have read my letters, uninteresting though they have been, I bow in deep gratitude.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Eld. J. Q. Montgomery has been employed for half of his time by the Christian church at Kirksville.

—Mrs. Henry Baughman's daughter, Miss Alice, joined the christian church Sunday and was baptized at night.

—The Paris Kentuckian says Revs. J. M. Evans and J. H. Hopper held a meeting at Hinkston, in Montgomery county, and increased the membership from 5 to 24.

—Rev. T. J. Godsey showed a brotherly and christian spirit by holding no services at his church Sunday night, so that he and his congregation could go and hear Rev. A. S. Moffett.

—The International Sunday-school Convention will convene in Mechanical Hall, Pittsburgh, to-day, and will continue for four days, holding three sessions daily. It promises to be the largest and most important meeting of the kind ever held, fully 1,500 delegates and prominent divines being expected.

—The Richmond Clinax says that Miss Carrie Cornelison and L. E. Francis and wife were publicly excluded from the Christian church at that place for heresy and going astray after false gods. It will be remembered that they took up with the Dutch god, Schweinfurth, whom they believe to be the true Christ in His second coming.

—Notwithstanding a decision of the Wisconsin supreme court that the Bible is a sectarian book and cannot be used as a text book in the public schools, and that the simple reading of it by the teacher, without commenting, is using it as a text book, the school board of Edgerton has refused to cause such use to be discontinued in the schools, and a peremptory writ of mandamus has been served on it ordering the discontinuance of the practice.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, held a very pleasant four days' session at Winchester and adjourned to meet next time at Cynthiana. The following officers were elected: Miss Belle Bennett, of Richmond, president; Mrs. A. G. Cosby, Cynthiana, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. Hughes, Carlisle, 2d vice-president; Mrs. S. C. Trueheart, Millersburg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. J. Nugent, Carrollton, recording secretary; Rev. W. F. Noland, Nicholasville, auditor; Mrs. Stephen Noland, Nicholasville, treasurer.

—The State Baptist Association, in session at Owensboro, chose Rev. W. H. Felix, of Lexington, as moderator, and J. G. Bow, of Russellville, secretary. There are 61 district associations in the body and they show an aggregate of 1,453 churches with a membership of 148,172, whose total contributions to all objects were $404,270.93, being an average of $3.13 per member. The Long Run Association, which embraces Louisville, contributed $27.78 to the member. The increase of membership during the year by baptism, &c., was 14,588 and the decrease by deaths, &c., 9,167. The 650 Sunday-schools report 4,238 officers and teachers; 37,631 scholars; contributions, $10,224.10. There were 1,410 Sunday-school scholars converted. The Baptist churches in the State are valued at $1,611,155.

—If his reception at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning is an index of the esteem in which Rev. A. S. Moffett is held here, he is surely greatly beloved by his old congregation as well as hundreds of other people. The church was literally filled, many persons attending who rarely darken the doors of a house of worship. Mr. Moffett was looking unusually well, and his voice, always clear and penetrating, was particularly fine, each word of his excellent sermon being heard with ease all over the building. His text was from the 25th chapter and 16th verse of Isaiah from which he made an earnest and eloquent plea for those who had not done so to build upon the stone, which is a "tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation," while time and opportunity is offered and before it is too late.

Excursion Rates to St. Paul and Milwaukee.

The Queen and Crescent Route will place on sale excursion tickets to St. Paul and return, on June 30th to July 6, good for return until July 15th, at one fare for the round-trip with $2 added for membership account National Educational Association. Those desiring to remain longer can have their tickets extended to Sept. 30. Also excursion tickets account Knights of Pythias to Milwaukee and return will be placed on sale July 4, 5, 6 and 7, good for return until July 21st, at one fare for the round-trip for a single ticket. A still lower rate will be made for parties of 25 or more traveling together on one ticket. Detailed information will be furnished on application to agents of Queen and Crescent route. Remember the Queen and Crescent is the shortest and quickest between New Orleans and Cincinnati, the only line south of the Ohio river running compartment sleeping cars, in which a section is practically a state-room. Excellent train service and polite train officials make a trip over this line a comfort and a delight.

COOK'S SPRINGS.

These beautiful and health-giving Springs are situated on Dix river, 4½ miles east of Stanford. They are of the purest chalybeate water. In the days of the old proprietor, Moses Cook, our ancestors spent many happy hours here, gaining health and happiness. For invalids I know of no more healthful waters, and for pleasure lovers it has no equal. There was never a cooler, more delightful boarding house, away from the noisy city and free from the musical mosquito. With a new house and plenty of fish, much pleasure can be obtained on the waters of old Dix river. Our Springs open on the 27th of June. Rates of board, beginning July 1st:

PROF. W. F. McCLARY and Miss Alice Stuart will attend the State Teachers' Association, which begins at Frankfort tomorrow.

MR. W. J. SPARKS and family have moved to this place from Stanford.—Mt. Vernon Signal. And Stanford regrets very much to lose them.

MRS. JOHN T. GANO and child and Mr. E. W. Rochester arrived from Dallas, Texas, Saturday, and are the guests of Capt. and Mrs. E. T. Rochester.

MISS PATTIE GENTRY, who has been attending Mrs. Breckinridge's school at Danville, is spending her vacation with her brother, Mr. Chris V. Gentry.

MRS. N. A. TYLER and Manley leave this morning for Richmond and Winchester to visit relatives, and Miss Alpha for Glasgow to visit Mrs. J. M. Bruce.

MESSRS. L. C. BOSLEY, in the junior class at Centre College, C. H. Holmes in the sophomore and W. H. Shanks in the freshman, each received honorable mention in one or more studies.

DR. J. MORGAN SIMS, who recently graduated with the first honor from the Louisville University of Medicine, left last week for Owensboro, where he will locate.—Courier-Journal. The doctor is a son of Mrs. Mary Sims, of this place.

MR. CHARLES H. HOLMES, son of Mrs. Lottie Holmes, formerly of Stanford, was awarded the Henry Barret Boyle prize—a handsome gold watch—for being the best Latin scholar in the sophomore class, Centre College. This is a very distinguished honor indeed.

MR. J. F. WALTON, who received the degree of A. B. at Centre College last week, was here a day or two ago wearing a splendid gold watch and chain presented by his cousin, Miss Lucy Quisenberry, in token of her appreciation of the hard work he did during the session.

REWARD.—A gentleman dropped $15 Sunday, a $10 and a $5 bill, for which he will pay a liberal reward if brought to this office.

THE Williamsburg Times says that Dr. W. M. Blain was struck by a bolt of lightning and remained unconscious for 15 minutes or more.

THE crew that shot at Section Boss Cummings on the Corbin Branch, after he had opened the fire, has been suspended, pending an investigation by the railroad authorities.

DEATH.—A little daughter of Mr. W. O. Watts, of Boyle, died Saturday while on a visit to the family of James Rambo, near Highland. She had inflammatory rheumatism and typhoid fever.

FOR CASH.—On and after July 1 we will do a strictly cash business and those persons owing us accounts are earnestly requested to settle them at the earliest possible date. Combest & Allen, liverymen, Hustonville.

THE superintendent of the Knoxville Division, Mr. P. T. Downs, says that there is no foundation for the report that the firemen were getting ready to strike. He is not aware that there is even a grievance.

SIX persons living in Stanford have reported to us that the enumerators have skipped them, but as the work is not complete yet we will wait for a time with patience before we say that the men are not doing their duty.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.—On account of the 4th of July the Queen & Crescent Route will sell excursion tickets between all stations at one fare for the round trip; tickets on sale July 3 & 4; good for return until July 7th, inclusive.

THERE will be an auction sale of lots in the new addition to Nicholasville, known as Duncan Heights, July 8th. Nicholasville offers superior advantages both as a place of residence and for business and manufactures and investors should investigate. See notice in this issue.

BARBOURVILLE is elated over the fact that oil was struck at a depth of 610 feet by the Land & Improvement Company boring an artesian well. The expert driller has pronounced it to be as good as any found in Pennsylvania, and the only place he has found the oil-bearing sandstone outside of Pennsylvania.

THE sulphur well in the rear of Mr. M. D. Elmore's store has gotten to be the most popular place in town. The water is delightfully cool and invigorating and all who drink it claim that they are benefited. Mr. Elmore very cleverly supplies all who come, but unless he puts some charge on it, we fear his good nature will be over-taxed.

THE L. & N. continues the war with the Knoxville, Cumberland Gap & Louisville railroad by tearing up all switch connections with it and belt roads at Middlesboro. The Court of Appeals gave the latter road the right to use the embankment approaching the tunnel at the north portal, and are thereby enabled to build into the Magic City.

THE hop at Hale's Well Friday night was attended by a large crowd, which enjoyed itself till a late hour. About a dozen couples went from town and all report a huge time. The supper was a splendid one, doing full justice to Mrs. Spoonamore's acknowledged culinary ability. Salter's orchestra, which had been playing all the season for Prof. Carson's class, was able to furnish good music and to keep it up till the last couple reluctantly left.

THE Stanford Female College, whose announcement appears in this issue, will open September 1, with a splendid faculty, engaged by President J. M. Hubbard with special reference to its ability and aptness in teaching the schools to which each is assigned. Prof. Hubbard is determined to make the school second to none in the State and if its natural patrons will do their duty an institution will be built up that will be the pride of the whole section. This office is now engaged in getting out his catalogue, which will be a very neat and comprehensive one.

COLLISION.—There was a fearful wreck of freight trains on the Cincinnati Southern Saturday afternoon, near McKinney. The local going North left the latter place to pass the through freight at Moreland and the through freight expected to pass the local at McKinney. Both were wrong in their calculations for they met under full headway on a curve on the old Burton place with terrific effect. Like fighting horses the engines reared up in their effort to demolish each other and stood on their stern ends, while the cars piled in shapeless confusion over them. Strange to say none of the trainmen were hurt, though they made some very narrow escapes.

WILL DUNN was arrested by Marshal Newland for lunacy Saturday and was placed in the hands of a guard till yesterday, but he had not been returned at last accounts.

TO TEACHERS.—Miss Kate Bogle, superintendent of common schools, requests us to say that as the first Friday in July falls on the 4th, a legal holiday, she will hold the first examination of white teachers on Saturday, July 5th.

BELIEVING that it will be advantageous to the purchaser as well as ourselves, we will begin on July 1 to sell exclusively for cash. Persons indebted to us will please come forward and settle their accounts. Weatherford & Cook, Hustonville, Ky.

W. R. CRESS, ex-editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal and an experienced teacher, has accepted the principalship of the Waynesburg Seminary, the fall term of which will begin next month. We hope and believe the arrangement will be mutually satisfactory.

A DISPATCH says that George D. Beddow, an old citizen of Danville, died there Saturday night of consumption. He was born in Lincoln county in 1848. He was at one time quite prominent in political circles, and made a race for the Legislature on the republican ticket.

THE INTERIOR JOURNALS are arranging for a week's tour, to begin July 7th. They will get their nine together, which was so invincible last season, and play Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Paris, Lexington and other cities, confident that they can do up any amateur nine that dares cross bats with them.

THERE came near being a street fight yesterday between a clothing merchant and a retired capitalist. The matter began in play, but ended as such things usually do, when the language and handling got too rough. Friends interposed and both men were heartily ashamed of themselves a minute afterwards.

WE do not intend to be profane, but we are forced to remark that Sunday was the most infernally hot day we ever experienced. The mercury registered 96° in the shade and the Lord Himself knows how high it was in the sun. There was a little more breeze yesterday, but still hot enough to bake a salamander.

OWING to certain financial arrangements made by the board for numerous permanent improvements of the College buildings, the lease of Prof. Hubbard has been extended two years, making it seven years or five more before it expires. A verandah is to be placed on the chapel end of the building and other needed additions made.

THERE are already a few guests at Crab Orchard Springs, but the regular opening will not occur till the 1st. Mr. Sam Holman was here yesterday and said he would go on the road the first of next week. The report that Mr. J. C. King would not be with the company this year is, we are glad to know, untrue. D. B. Edmiston will be head clerk and Miss Annie McLaughlin will be general manager.

THE Advocate blew a little in its last issue because a Centre College nine came up here and waxed what it called the INTERIOR JOURNALS 24 to 4. The fact of the business is there were only three of the regular I. Js. in the nine, the rest being picked up without regard to their ability to play, in order not to disappoint the visitors who had come on short notice.

THE alumnae meeting at Stanford Female College, Saturday, was quite largely attended and much enjoyed. The organization of an alumnae association was effected and officers elected as follows: President, Mrs. Forestus Reid; 1st vice-president, Mrs. W. H. Higgins; 2d vice-president, Miss Mary Alcorn, and secretary and treasurer, Miss Florence Estes. The object of the organization is to bring the graduates closer together for the purpose of social and intellectual pleasures. An entertainment and a banquet are on the programme.

THE race for magistrate in the Crab Orchard precinct is growing red-hot. There are 13 contestants for the office, including the great Fontaine Fox Bobbitt, whose ambition seems to be on the sliding scale, Jordan Peter Chandler, J. A. Chappell, H. B. Farris, W. A. Carson, and so on. They had a big speaking Saturday night, when personalities took the place of argument and charges and counter charges passed for oratory. Jordan Peter states it as an absolute fact that two of the candidates, whose names are withheld, can neither read nor write.

A WARNING.—Andy Yates and Henry Logan were jailed Sunday, the former for drunkenness and the latter for being drunk and disorderly. Before Judge Carson yesterday each was fined $5. They both swore that they got their whisky at bar-rooms Sunday. We have heard frequent complaints that at least two of the bar-rooms are virtually open all day Sunday. This is in direct violation of both the State and town laws, the latter providing that licenses shall be forfeited when it is shown that the holders sell on Sunday. The failure of saloon men to observe the law is one of the principal reasons that their business is regarded in such an odious light by many. A word to the wise is sufficient. Our town authorities have the hint. Let them keep their eyes skinned and declare every license forfeited in which any of the conditions are violated.

—Robert Collier, of this county, delivered to B. F. Robinson, last week, 50 buck lambs that made the fine average of 91 pounds, at 5½ cts. Mr. Robinson also shipped on Saturday 2 car-loads from Lancaster and one from Hyattsville, 75 pounds, at 5½ cts.—Lancaster Record.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

Stockholders' Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Carpenter & Hustonville Station tarapite road will be held at the store of J. B. Green, at Hustonville, Ky., on Saturday, July 5, 1890, for the purpose of electing a President and Board of Directors for the ensuing year. 33-15 J. K. BAUGHMAN, Pres.

AUCTION SALE

DESIRABLE LOTS

At Nicholasville, Ky.,

In the new Addition to the City known as Duncan Heights,

On Tuesday, July 8, 1890, Commencing at 1 p. m.

The Nicholasville Contract and Investment Co. have purchased the beautiful farm of Mr. Robert Duncan, on the edge of Nicholasville, bordering on two railroads and two turnpikes, and the best engineers have laid it off into streets, avenues and squares. Within this addition may be found lovely hills and dales, wooded parks and grassy lawns, springs of clear water and an artificial lake, which when completed, will be admirably adapted for fishing and rowing, as well as for furnishing water for manufacturing purposes. No more delightful sites for residences can be found anywhere in Kentucky.

Excellent graded school—seven teachers—free to months in the year.

Nicholasville has no city indebtedness; taxes very low; not a vacant house. Rents are high and houses in demand—the city is growing rapidly and the past has demonstrated that large profits will be made by investments in Nicholasville property. Remember the day, Tuesday, July 8.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash; balance in one and two years, with 6 per cent interest from date. By order of the Nicholasville Contract and Investment Co. J. S. BRONKAUGH, Pres. B. HOOVER, Sec'y.

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give him a call.
